Prop Bags

Every actor will have a bag as part of your character on stage. If you have extras for others to borrow, or are unable to provide your own bag, please contact Jaycee Hosier at jayceekwc@gmail.com

How to choose your bag:

Step 1: Think about it.

- Your character is headed out of the house and grabbing your bag...
- Where are you going?
- What is in it?
- What are you, the actor, physically doing on stage?

Step 2: Choose your bag type.

Backpack

Satchel/crossbody bag

Fanny pack

Purse

Lunchbox (preferably with a shoulder strap)

Step 3: Find a bag in your character group aesthetic.

Avoid bags with words, large logos, licensed characters (ex. Nike, Mickey Mouse), and bags that are super-shiny, sequined, or highly reflective, and bags that are primarily pink or green

POET:

Canvas, cloth, yarn, textured.

Colors: peaches, browns, turquoise, neutral colors, follow the Poet costume color scheme

VISIONARY:

Sleek, streamlined, cloth, vinyl, or leather/pleather

Colors: purple, lavender, royal blue, navy, gray, brown, black, cream, white

SCHOLAR:

Fun, functional, bright, color-block, stripes, non-licensed characters (bunny, dino, etc.)

Colors: reds, oranges, yellows, black & white. Large patches of blue, green, purple are okay in combination with other colors. Avoid large amounts of pink.

ACTIVIST:

Denim, cloth, canvas, bags with buttons/pins

Colors: rainbow, khaki, white, denim, prints,
